CHRISTMAS SPECTACULAR PACKAGE

Day One

11:00 a.m.	Arrive in Abilene Rest break at the restored Union Pacific Depot View the Victorian decorations in this 1928 Art Deco building
11:30 a.m.	Enjoy lunch at Ike's favorite restaurant, Mr. K's Farmhouse.
1:00 p.m.	Tour the Museum of Independent Telephony Journey back 100 years and see the transformation of the telephone to its present day
2:00 p.m.	Sip tea at Abilene's Victorian Inn. Bring your own hat or wear one from the inn keeper's collection
4:00 p.m.	Shopping in the Downtown Specialty Stores and Antique Shops. (Discount coupons available)
5:30 p.m.	Hotel Check-in
5:45 p.m.	Devour a family-style chicken dinner at the world-renown Brookville Hotel. A 2007 recipient of the James Beard Award and voted one of the 8 Wonders of Kansas Cuisine, your experience at this fourth generation-run restaurant will not be forgotten.
6:30 p.m.	Attend a movie at the Great Plains Theatre Or
7:30 p.m.	Conclude your day with a relaxing theatre production at the only live professional theatre between Kansas City and Denver, Great Plains Theatre 2013 Production is "Nuncrackers". Dates December 6-22, 2013
9:30 p.m.	Retire to the hotel for a great night's sleep

Day Two

8:00 a.m.	Enjoy a hot deluxe breakfast at the hotel
9:00 a.m.	Take a guided bus tour of Historic Abilene. Learn how this First American Cowtown of the West came to be known as the End of the Chisholm Trail.
10:00 a.m.	Tour the magnificent Seelye Mansion, built in 1905. The 25-room mansion holds its original furnishings, purchased at the 1904 World's Fair in St. Louis. View the 700-piece nutcracker collection, many Christmas trees and 50 poinsettias.— One of the 8 Wonders of Kansas Architecture
11:30 a.m.	Lunch at Hitching Post Restaurant You will be served some home-cooked food in Old Abilene Town. After lunch, browse the General Store.
1:00 p.m.	Tour the Eisenhower Presidential Library, Museum, and Boyhood Home of the 34th U. S. President. Marvel at the holiday decorations throughout the campus.— An Original 8 Wonders of Kansas
3:00 p.m.	Depart Abilene with warm memories and a full tummy!